My practice – Self-assessment

Check the box that best describes your attitude toward the points below.

	lt is a constant habit for me (provide examples of how you do it).	l should do it more often (explain what you find difficult).	l have never done it because (provide possible reasons).
I share learning intentions with my students.
l elicit evidence about student learning processes during everyday practice.
I adapt teaching by using evidence from a classroom conversation with students as a form of feedback.
l conduct peer and self- assessment as a part of classroom practice.
l provide students opportunities to show what they have learned in class.
